

SUMMER READING REQUIREMENTS FOR KEY MIDDLE SCHOOL 2008

Rising 6th Grade: Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick

RFBD: DTHV751

Bridge to Terabithia by Katherine Patterson

RFBD: DTHV830

Rising 7th Grade: Artemis Fowl by Eoin Colfer

RFBD: DTJC005

One from Choices Attached

Rising 8th Grade: Fever 1793 by Laurie Anderson

RFBD: DTMR454

House of the Scorpion by Nancy Farmer

RFBD: DTGT295

1. Students are required to read the two books listed above before the end of summer.
2. Attached are brief report forms. Please fill out a report for each of the required readings to turn in during the first week of school.
3. You are required to choose one of the books and prepare a book presentation to share the first week back to school. See the attached "Choose Your Own Book Presentation" sheet of ideas.
4. Be prepared to write about one of your books in class during the first days of school. You will be expected to include plot, setting, major characters, and conflicts.
5. You will find many more great books in your public library and bookstore.

*Some students may be able to read these selections independently; others may require an audio-tape or parental assistance.

*RFB&D=Reading for the Blind & Dyslexic

We strongly encourage you to order your Summer Reading on CD from RFB&D. If you would like more information, please contact the Key.

Have a great summer and a great time reading!

Name _____

1. Title _____

Author _____

Main

Characters _____

Plot Summary:

Your Favorite Part of the Book:

2. Title _____

Author _____

Main

Characters _____

Plot Summary:

Your Favorite Part of the Book:

Choose Your Own Book Presentation Format

You get to choose the format for your book presentation. Below are some possibilities, but just about anything goes!

Book presentations will be due during the first week of school.

Remember, show what you learned, what you enjoyed, or something interesting about the book you read.

The following are just some possibilities. Use your imagination!

Oral Report

Paper Bag

Poster

Flip Book

Dramatic Performance

Scrapbook

Poem or Rap

Journal

Video

Model

Board Game

Puppet Show

Time Line

Newspaper Front Page